

Readiwriter Support Guide

Readiwriter is an online spelling programme we use for children to learn and practise their weekly spellings at home. Readiwriter has lots of engaging activities and games which are designed to help children develop a deeper and more secure understanding of spelling and vocabulary. We hope this guide will explain the various features of Readiwriter and how your child/children can learn and practise the spellings set by their class teacher each week.

To log into Readiwriter please either click on the icon below or the following link:

<https://login.readiwriter.com/>

The link will take you to the log in page:

When logged in, your child will be taken to this page:

When clicked, the Prepare icon will take you to a learning statement – this explains the spelling pattern your child has been set.

The Show icon will take you to the spelling list your child has been allocated. For example:

basically

realistically

terrifically

romantically

academically

athletically

frantically

drastically

sarcastically

basically

adverb

DEFINITION

in a general or basic way

SENTENCE

She explained the new rules very basically and will tell us more later.

SYLLABLE BREAKDOWN

ba | si | cal | ly

Next

For each word, there is a definition, sentence and also a syllable breakdown to help children read the word. There is an audio button on each page of Readwriter which your child can click to listen to if they find a word / sentence tricky to read.

The Practise and Explore icons are where your child will find the various games and engaging activities they can use to practise and learn their weekly spellings.

We hope you find this guide useful when supporting your child in learning their weekly spellings.
