

Friend or Foe by Michael Morpurgo

Chapter 5

Reading Focus: Vocabulary and Inference

1. Explain what the author means when he says, 'he spoke haltingly'.
2. How do you think the author wants us to feel about the German bombers? How does he achieve this?
3. Look at the sentence below. Can you re-write it with the missing capital letters?

these were the german men who had bombed london and plymouth and killed thousands of people.

4. Why do you think Tucky interrupts David when he begins to tell Ann the story of what has happened? Explain your answer using evidence from the text.
5. Note down the key events of this chapter and sequence them in the order they happen.

Twitter Summary Challenge

Can you write a summary of Chapter 5 in 15 words? If you can, challenge yourself to write the summary in 10 words!