

Friend or Foe by Michael Morpurgo

Chapter 8

Reading Focus: Inference

1. Look at page 115. How do you think the officer who led the original search felt?
2. You are Tucky re-telling the events to your classmates. What will you say?
3. Imagine you are the milkman Harry Reddaway and are being interviewed for the local paper. What will you say?
4. How do you think David feels when Mr. Reynolds learns the truth?

Using the information from this chapter, tick one box in each row to show whether each statement is true or false.

	True	False
The prisoner was being taken to Plymouth for questioning.
The headlines in the newspaper read. 'German airmen discovered by evacuees!'
Mr Reddaway discovered the second German bomber.
David and Tucky still visit the Reynolds' every year with a bottle of whisky.

Discuss the following themes.

It's never wrong to do what you feel is right.	There is no room for cowardice in the world.	In war, neither side is to blame.
War is a senseless act of violence and no one really wins.	Human beings have an immense capacity for bravery and courage.	It is good to help others.

Which do you feel are most important to the story and why? Use evidence from the text to support your theory.
