

The little red hen was friends with Patricia the pig, Pedro the Puppy, Godfrey the Goat and Stan the special Cow.

They were all very lazy except for the little red hen. She planted seeds all by herself.

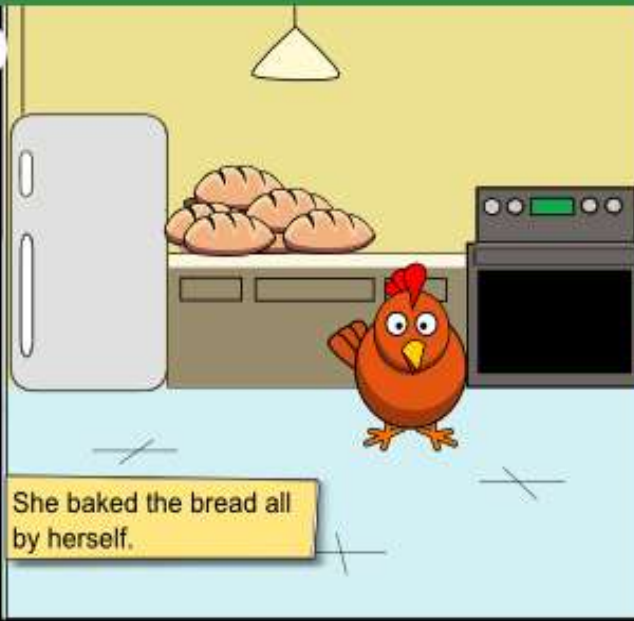

She cut the wheat all by herself.

She took the wheat to the mill all by herself.

She baked the bread all by herself.

BREAD!!!

But when she made the bread, everyone wanted bread, even though they didn't help to make it.
