River Ganges

Over the past couple of lessons we have begun to investigate the River Ganges and are beginning to understand its importance to Hindus. This week we will be researching to find out more information about the river, especially its geographical location then later deciding whether a trip to the area would be appealing to a non-Hindu person. Use the links provided to answer the questions below.

- 1) Where does the River Ganges start?

- 2) Where does the River Ganges end?

- 3) Find 3 interesting facts about the River Ganges.

Varanasi

Ask an adult to help you to research holidays to India, use the links on the planner to focus your search on Varanasi. Try to think about how the area may be interesting as a non-Hindu and what there is to see and do. The websites on the planner have plenty of available excursions and places of interest you can visit. Make notes about what you have found out. Next lesson you will be using your research to write postcards home from the area from the view point of Hindu and non-Hindu visitors so keep your information to hand.
