Poet in Residence

The children of Barlows have many talents from across a range of disciplines. Evelyn in Year 5 is a great example of the talented writers we have in school.

When many of us think of writing, we automatically think of story writing. However, in Evelyn's case, she is a talented poet. Recently, she entered a poetry competition on the theme of artificial intelligence. We are very proud to tell you that Evelyn was one of the winners in the under-11s category with her entry, 'Poem from the Future'.

As a result, her poem has been published in a special book called 'Flash from the Future: Poetry and Prose', produced by the University of Liverpool and the National Museums Liverpool. As a school, we have been gifted a copy of the book which will go on display in our school library for others to enjoy.

Well done Evelyn, everyone at Barlows is very proud of you!

Christmas Movie Morning

On Tuesday 21st December, the children will enjoy a Christmas movie morning. They are welcome to bring some popcorn or a packet of sweets to enjoy during the movie. Please do not send in any nuts as we have children with severe nut allergies.
