Children's University Au2

Children's University Clubs

Children's University Clubs commence 16/11/26 due to Parents' Evening week commencing 07/12/26.

These clubs represent a wonderful opportunity for our pupils to engage in a variety of extra-curricular activities that are designed to extend their knowledge and experiences outside of the standard curriculum.

The extra-curricular activities will be delivered by our dedicated School staff, who generously give up their time to provide these enriching experiences. We are pleased to offer a range of activities that cater to different interests and encourage our pupils to explore new areas of learning.

Please be advised that places for each activity are limited. Therefore, it is crucial that you inform us if your child no longer wishes to participate in the activity they have been offered. This will allow us to extend the opportunity to other pupils who may be on the waiting list.

It is important to note that while we encourage children to express their interest in participating in after-school activities, a place is not guaranteed unless you receive notification via Arbor. We continuously monitor club allocations to ensure that places are offered fairly to all pupils throughout the academic year.

Should you have any questions or require further clarification regarding the University Clubs, please do not hesitate to contact Deputy Head, Mrs Kirby-Foy, via the school office.

Thank you for your continued support. We look forward to another successful half term of engaging activities for our students.

Along with his grumpy but well-meaning one-eyed alien partner Eyera, Ray is struggling to make ends meet until a new case drops into his lap a protection case for the short-tempered mega pop star Venus Nova, whose new album needs to be released without controversy.

However, all is not what it seems and Ray must navigate the glistening boardrooms and shady backstreets of Metropia if he is to keep both himself, and those he loves, safe from harm.

With its blend of 1930s noir and tech-heavy science-fiction, Ray Gunn is a hugely original and energetic animation that gently leans on themes of integrity, diversity and finding your place in a rapidly changing world."

Following the screening, children will explore themes, characters, and creative techniques used in filmmaking, helping to develop their critical thinking, communication, and media literacy skills.

We look forward to hearing their thoughts and reflections on this exciting cinematic experience and seeing how it inspires their own creativity.

However, after unexpectedly capturing a fearsome dragon known to the tribe as 'the Night Fury', Hiccup realises he is not a killer and instead befriends the dragon, naming it Toothless. As the two unlikely companions begin to form a strong bond of friendship, despite Hiccup's dragon slaying training in full swing and his crush Astrid getting more suspicious, the young Viking soon stumbles across a secret which might hold the key to humans and dragons forming a new future together. But as the silent era gives way to talkies, filmmakers decide their nonsense-speak doesn't work for the screen. They therefore decide to produce their own monster movie. What could possibly go wrong? "Charles Dickens's classic 'A Christmas Carol' is reimagined through a modern lens in this vibrant musical infused with themes of identity and inclusion, set in contemporary London. The story follows Mr. Sood, a wealthy, British Asian businessman who scorns generosity and exploits his staff on zero-hour contracts. On Christmas Eve, he is visited by three spirits who guide him first through his past as a refugee, then to open his eyes to his present and the damage being caused by his disdain for those around him, and finally to look upon a bleak future shaped by his selfishness. Through these encounters, Sood confronts prejudice, lost love, and the consequences of his choices, ultimately rediscovering empathy and the joy of giving, with a little bit of encouragement along the way from a jolly London cab driver. With a rich, multicultural soundtrack blending gospel, bhangra, rap, and pop, the film celebrates Britain's diverse communities and the spirit of the season."

Reminders

Attendance Reminder

As a school community, we are committed to providing the best possible education for our students. A crucial aspect of this commitment is ensuring that students attend school regularly and punctually. Research consistently demonstrates that good attendance is directly linked to academic success and overall well-being.

Every day at school brings valuable learning opportunities, and it is vital that each child participates fully in their education. Regular attendance not only enhances individual learning but also contributes to a positive and engaging classroom environment.

If your child is unwell and unable to attend school, we kindly ask that you notify us before 8:30am on the morning of their absence. This will enable us to keep accurate records and ensure that we can provide appropriate support for your child.

Punctuality Reminder

Our school day officially begins at 8:45 am, providing students with a chance to settle in and prepare for lessons that commence promptly at 9:00 am.

Punctuality is crucial as it not only sets a positive tone for the day but also demonstrates respect for the learning environment and the educational process.

Arriving on time allows students to engage fully with their lessons and fosters a commitment to their own academic success.

We have observed that a small number of students are arriving after 9:00 am, which can cause disruption not only to their own learning but also to that of their peers.

Late arrivals often miss important instructions and can find it challenging to integrate smoothly into ongoing activities. Consequently, it is essential that we work together to encourage students to arrive at school with ample time to spare.

To support your child in gaining the habit of punctuality, we recommend the following strategies:

Routine Setting: Establishing a consistent morning routine will help your child prepare for the school day and ensure they arrive on time. This may include setting earlier wake-up times and organising belongings the night before.

Travel Arrangements: Please review your child's travel arrangements to ensure they allow sufficient time to reach school before the start of lessons.

Positive Reinforcement: Recognising and celebrating instances of punctuality can motivate your child to maintain this habit.

We kindly ask for your cooperation in reinforcing the importance of punctuality with your child. Together, we can ensure that every student has the best possible opportunity to thrive in their educational journey.
